

58

ENID:

Enid

Start

60 ENID:

Pret - ty im - press - ive, Good to know. E - nid Hoopes!

EMMETT:
Pret - ty im - press - ive, Good to know. Wel - come to...

AARON:
Pret - ty im - press - ive, Good to know.

"ENID'S TURN"

61

ENID:

I did the Peace Corps o - ver seas, in - noc - u - lat - ing ref - u - gees in fam - ly clin - ics that I

64 built my - self from mud and trees. 65 66 I fought to clean up their la - goons And save their rare en - dan - gered

67 loons, then led a pro - test march a - gainst in - sen - si - tive car - toons. 68 69

AARON:
EMMETT:
PADAMADAN:
Pret - ty im - press - ive,
Pret - ty im - press - ive,

70

ENID:

BUT now I'm on the le-gal track, be-cause our coun-try's out of whack, and on-ly wo-men have the guts to go and take it back. We'll make the go-vern-ment come clean and get more peo-ple vot-ing

Green and real - ly stick it to the phal - lo - cen - tric war ma - chine.

(to m. 108)
End

ELLE: "Anyone know where I can find (consulting roster) Criminal Law 101 with Professor Callahan & Warner Huntington III?"
EMMETT: "Well, we're all heading there, so I'm sure someone would be happy to—"
But the STUDENTS have gotten up quickly and left.

EMMETT: "...show you... It's in Hauser. Over there, second building on the left."
ELLE: "Thanks."
EMMETT: "But I don't think dogs are exactly allowed in class."
ELLE: "Oh, Bruiser's not a dog, Bruiser's family. I'll just drop Bruiser off at my room. He'd be happier there anyway: Bruiser loves Glee. I'll see you later then."

108 109 In 2 2 109-110

AARON:
 I won a Ful - bright and a Rhodes. I write fi - nan - cial . soft - ware codes...

PADAMADAN:
 In my coun - try My